Roger the Construction Worker

The Professional Chickens Series

Educational Book on Teamwork and Working Together

*Roger says, "Working as a team is how things get made."
"And when someone is not helpful, the job will get delayed."*

Roger the Construction Worker's positive message is about teamwork. Roger explains that it is important to get along with others because you can get more done when you work together rather than argue and fight. Roger struggles to keep his workers on schedule and it seems like the job is going to get delayed. What seems like an impossible task turns out great! Because with everyone getting along, the job gets done.

Roger the Construction Worker is an inspirational book on teamwork for kids. An educational book that helps toddlers learn to share and work together.
