

Topic and Discussion Page

Sculptlings

The Sporty Little Penguins Series

Patty the Paddleboarder

Educational Book About Environmental Conservation and Pollution For Kids

Patty the Paddleboarder is an ocean conservation book on pollution for kids. Patty's story is an inspirational message for young readers about saving the marine life and our planet. This little paddleboarder, points out the pollution that she sees and reminds us that we need to protect our environment.

Patty's positive message is on how one person can make a difference and together we can change the world. Patty the Paddleboarder Book has an uplifting story that teaches kids about pollution and it comes with an inspiring message too.

Book Topics

- Environmental Conservation
- What Pollution is doing to our Marine Life and our planet
- Being Proactive and Planning ahead to save our planet

Ideas for how to review this book with kids 3-6:

- What was the message of the story?
- Have the child retell the story in their own words.
- Go back to each page and have the child describe what is going on.
- What words in the story rhyme?

Tips on Topics and Discussions for Advanced Readers:

- What event happens to Patty to make her realize that there is pollution?
- How does seeing the trash in the water make Patty feel?
- How did pollution effect the bird?
- What does Patty decide to do about the pollution?
- What was Patty's solution for helping the environment?
- What are some things that you could do to help the environment?

Compare Books

Try comparing the story Patty the Paddleboarder with other Sculptlings Books, such as Jay the Stingray and compare the 2 messages.

- Try comparing the characters and their lessons. How are they different? How are they the same? (Example: Both Patty and Jay have a problem with pollution in the water. They both end up helping marine life who get caught in fishing lines. They both are looking for a solution to prevent pollution.)