2. Good Choices Chart

Goal: Reinforce decision-making skills.

Instructions:

Create a two-column chart with kids labeled “Good Choices” and “Not Good Choices.”

Ask them to give examples from Scotty’s story:

Good: Swim with a buddy.

Not Good: Touch something you don’t know.

Good Choices (Safe & Kind Like Scotty!)	Not Good Choices (Unsafe or Unkind)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Look, but don’t touch sea creatures✓ Swim with a buddy✓ Ask an adult for help if something looks unsafe✓ Keep your hands to yourself in the water✓ Leave shells and rocks where you find them✓ Watch where you swim — don’t step on coral✓ Pick up your trash to keep the ocean clean✓ Be gentle and quiet around animals✓ Share the ocean space with others✓ Make safe choices so everyone can have fun!	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Touching or picking up sea animals○ Swimming alone○ Taking shells or rocks home○ Putting hands in holes or dark places○ Chasing or scaring sea creatures○ Throwing trash or food into the ocean○ Ignoring safety rules○ Splashing or rough play in the water○ Forgetting to check your gear before swimming○ Not listening to your grown-up helper
